

MGCE 2022 Preliminary Schedule

Thursday, July 28th

- 9:30–10:00 Arrival and Welcome
- 10:00–10:45 Dorothee Bleisch (FAU Erlangen-Nürnberg): Why Conceptual Arguments for the Usability Demand Are a Dead End
Comment: Marius Baumann (LMU)
- 10:45–11:30 Dominik Boll (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam): Responsible Persons, Positive Reactive Attitudes, and the Function of Taking Responsibility
Comment: Daniel Sharp (LMU)
- 11:30–11:45 Short Break
- 11:45–12:30 Felix Lambrecht (Toronto): The Timing Challenge and its solution: Towards a theory of reparative justice for historical injustice
Comment: Korbinian Rüger (LMU)
- 12:30–13:15 Eline Gerritsen (St Andrews, Groningen): The Autonomous Significance of Etiquette and Morality
Comment: Max Weber (LMU)
- 13:15–14:45 Lunch
- 14:45–15:30 Jake Lehrle-Fry (Aarhus): Must we do anything about our friends with bad beliefs?
Comment: Sinja Hofmann (LMU)
- 15:30–16:15 Laurenz Ramsauer (Chicago): Kant's Racism as a Philosophical Problem
Comment: Eytan Celik (LMU)
- 16:15–16:30 Short Break
- 16:30–18:00 Keynote: Prof Rae Langton (Cambridge): Free speech as the protection and enablement of speech acts that matter

Dinner from 19:30 at bodhi, Ligsalzstraße 23, Munich

Friday, July 29th

- 9:30–10:00 Arrival
- 10:00–10:45 Michael Haiden (Salzburg): Blame, Punishment and Human Enhancement
Comment: Sarah Köglspurger (LMU)
- 10:45–11:30 Laura Soter (University of Michigan): The Cognitive Work of Friendship
Comment: Simon Stromer (LMU)
- 11:30–11:45 Short Break
- 11:45–13:15 Career Workshop with Dr. Isolde von Bülow (Graduate Center LMU)
- 13:15–14:45 Lunch
- 14:45–15:30 Anna Milioni (King's College London, University of Geneva): Living under the power of the democratic state
Comment: Rasa Davidavičiūtė (LMU)
- 15:30–16:15 Benedict Lane (Exeter): (How) are moral revolutions morally progressive?
Comment: Marina Moreno (LMU)
- 16:15–16:30 Short Break
- 16:30–18:00 Keynote: Prof Laura Valentini (LMU): On our moral standing to claim